Presidents Message From Tony DeLeo

Hello Members,

Big love and a shoutout to Edie - we are so happy you're on your feet and feeling better.

Yeah, the weather threw us a curveball this month and we missed a few Supercar Sundays... but we still showed up strong at the pancake breakfast / car show at the Devonshire Police Station for a great cause. Always a good time and great seeing the Road Kings there too!

It may have been a slower month but that just means we are gearing up for something BIG.

Our 43rd Classic Chevys of Southern California Car Show is happening May 3rd at Rancho San Antonio Boys Home. And this year isn't just another show... it's our 50th Anniversary.

That's five decades of chrome, horsepower, community and pride. Let's make this one unforgettable.

Bring the energy. Bring the rides. Let's show up the way only we can.

See you there!

Tony

MINUTES OF THE APRIL MEETING OF CCSC

President Tony DeLeo called the meeting to order at 10:09 AM. All board members are present. Sgt. At Arms Jim Ayach sold 50/50 raffle tickets. Over 35 members are present. President DeLeo wished everyone "Good Morning." There was one guest, Dale Conover Jr..

Treasurer Gerry Wasson went over the financial report for the month. Books are in good shape.

Vice President Clark Pomeroy went over upcoming car show flyers. Flyers will be in the newsletter. The show at the Devonshire Police Station is on April 18th. We are meeting at 6:15 AM at the Bank of America at Devonshire and Reseda. We will have between 12 - 15 cars. It is an all you can eat pancake breakfast.

President DeLeo announced the birthdays and anniversaries for April.

OLD BUSINESS: Our May 3rd car show will have about 30 club cars registered. Members were told that Rancho is spending a lot of money on improving the grounds. Car show registration with Mark Kleckner, his sons, Norma Laine and Jim Stevens will be done outside the gates this year. Jim Stevens gave an update on shirts and polos. He has called Midnight Impression 2 - 3 times a week. He is very frustrated. The key to the restroom for the car show and who will have the key was discussed. There was a discussion regarding the use of Chip Rood's or Tim Benkert's truck to deliver supplies to Rancho on Saturday, May 2nd. Pizza lunch will be available to all members at the car show. Club party after the car show at Caren Blumfield's home. RSVP is required. It was unanimous by a show of hands. All club members are expected to be at Rancho on May 3rd by 6 AM. On Saturday, May 2nd, club members are expected at Chip's business by 8 AM to load the truck and then unload at Rancho. Many questions from the floor about security on May 3rd. Alan, Tony, and Gerry answered to the best of their knowledge. We will have two rolls of colored dot stickers to put on cars entering the show on May 3rd.

NEW BUSINESS: Dale Kredell has Myers lemons. Jerome reminded members that he needs to order at least five club jackets. Brian and Will Netzley and Clark Pomeroy ordered jackets today. Patrick O'Donnell has many '55 Chevy Bel Air parts for sale. Dale Conover was going to speak about election of officers but will wait until the June meeting.

50/50: Won by Tony DeLeo

BADGE RAFFLE: Won by Tony DeLeo, but he wasn't wearing his badge.

Tony asked for a show of hands from those going to Bob's in Northridge. Fifteen members raised their hands.

Meeting adjourned at 11:05 AM.

Respectfully Submitted,
James Stevens
Secretary
